A Whack at Windom.

Chicago, 25 — Times' New York: Henry Villard, president of the Oregon Company, in his application for an injunction forthall the supplies of the Northern Pacific, includes in his exhibit among the persons benefited by the issue of this stock, Secretary Windom to the amount of 2,145 shares, representing at the market price, to-day, $37,883. The World after referring to Secretary Windom's recent anti-monopoly speech in connection with this, says: Perhaps Secretary Windom will obligs us with his views as to the bearing of the Supreme Court decision that trafficking in railway property is engaging in commerce, and upon the statute forbidding a person engaged in commerce to fill the position of secretary of the treasury of the United States. If popular rumor may be credited, our estremed fellaw citzen, Mr. L. P. Morten, would have filled, but for the statute, the post now occupied by Secretary Windom.

Russia and the East.

Chicago, 26 — Times, Loudon: Russia piays to political parties in England the same part that the south does to parties in the north. Neither party caries in the other for the diversion of the public, and the game is won by the side that scores the largest number of political points. Just now the abandonment of Can lahar is discussed in Parliament to the exclusion of all other subjects. It is a singular fact that conservatives, in opposing eracustion, are reversing many of their own traditions and utterances, when they held power. As a result government succeeded in carrying measures of abandonment, although the fight of the opposition was a bitter one. There is no ground whatever for the belief that Russians have any idea of advancing upon India by way of Candahar. If they had andhar is not a point of any strategic importance, and this is understood on both sides. The main argument now is that Candahar should be held for its commercial importance.

California Justice.

New York 25.—The World says: One DeYoung having shot Kalloch senior, and Kalloch junior having murdered Da-Young, another. DoYoung is thicking of killing Kallech. Of course the authorities will act as favorably in the case of the next murderer as they did in the case of the last one. The general government might perhaps encourage this Californian industry by a liberal system of subsides.

The Times says: Now and then in California a Chinaman is hanged constitute by officers of the law and effected by the sgents of the law and effected for the murder of DeYoung, would seem to indicate that the day for hanging people in California, except in such obscure cases as those above noted has not yet come. There have been innumerable cases within the past low years of a California jury a quitting persons who were clearly guilty of murder, the jury in every case being actuated by sympathy with the defendant or by motives of graiffication at the death of the victim. Mrs. Fair escaped hanging became the jury thought it a hard case that Crittenden should go back" on his paramour, and lively with his own wife, after years of neglect. Virtually the jury said that Mrs. Fair was justified in hunting down trittenden, and sheoting him in the presence of his wife and children, as she did Later an editor who had had a newapaper discussion with a local politician was shot and killed in cold blood by an was shot and killed in cold blood by an

of his wife and children, as she did.

Inter an editor who had had a newapaper discussion with a local politician was shot and killed in cold blood by an angry man who had been assalled. The sayer was acquitted because the jury thought it time to curb the license of the of press and because some of the jurymen were of the same politics as the slayer. There is no question as to the fact in either of these two cases. Clearly, the California jury decided that the community was well rid of De Young, and the slender accuse offered them by the doubt thrown on the case by the widence for the defense was sufficient for them to bring in a wadiet of 'not guilty.' The minds of the jurymen took in the whole circumstances of the case, from the beginning of the fact to the homielde. It was not for them to determine whether a man had been murdered or cot, but to say whether the murderer was to be, on the whole rewarded f. r putting a dantagerous man out of the way. At this intercocluder the jury arrived. The public sympathized with the jury.
